

১৭ জুন ২০০৯
কনাক

Uttara University convocation held Need for ensuring quality of edn in pyt varsities stressed

President Zillur Rahman on Tuesday underscored the need for ensuring quality of education in private universities, reports UNB.

"Private universities were established as per demand of time but we must ensure that no one could raise question about their quality of education," he said while speaking at the first convocation of Uttara University at Bangladesh-China Friendship Conference Centre in Dhaka.

A total of 1000 students were conferred graduate and post graduate degrees for the academic year of 2004-2008 of the university.

Masuma Khatun received

Chancellor's gold medal for outstanding result in B.Ed. Saying that research activities are not that much done in the universities these days, President Zillur Rahman emphasized on enhancing research programmes at university level in line with developed world.

"We need to take necessary steps to uphold values among the students as education without values could not be able to contribute in nation building process," he said.

President urged country's planners, teachers, civil society and implementing agencies to play their role with sincerity to ensure maximum utilization of resources for implementing the Prime Minister declared 'charter of change'.