

Sahara warns students Stern action to be taken against immoral acts

Home Minister Advocate Sahara Khatun on Saturday warned that stern actions would be taken against those students who would be involved in terrorist and immoral activities in the name of politics, reports BSS.

"No one will be spared from the action if he or she gets involved in extortion, illegal capturing of seat or hall and admission trade in the educational institutions," she said while addressing the freshers' reception of the Eden College as the chief guest.

Chaired by the Principal of the college Prof. Mahfuza Chowdhury, the function was addressed, among others, Dr Mostafa Jalal Mohiuddin, MP, eminent singer Momtaz Begum, MP, former cricketer ASM Rakibul Hassan and leaders of different students' organizations of the college.

Sahara Khatun said that the government will not allow any sorts of terrorist activities, extortion, illegal capturing of seat or hall in the educational institutions in the name of students' politics.

She called upon the track-
