

20/02/02

তারিখ: ২০/০২/০২
পৃষ্ঠা: ৬

International seminar on SAARC held at CU

CU Correspondent

AN INTERNATIONAL seminar on SAARC role was held on Wednesday at Chittagong University.

The South Asian Youth for Peace and Prosperity Society arranged the seminar titled 'Strengthening SAARC: Role of Bangladesh and Pakistan' at the conference room of the university's social science faculty.

Mohammed Sahid Ullah, associate professor of communication and journalism, presided over the seminar while Moonis Ahmar, professor of international relations of Karachi University, Pakistan and Mohammed Shamsuddin, professor of political science of CU, were present as the guest speakers.

Muhammed Faridul Alam, former chairman of international relations of CU, presented the key-note paper at the programme.