

JU teachers' group announces protest programmes

JU correspondent

A SECTION of Jahangirnagar University teachers on Tuesday announced a two-day programme demanding election to the posts of deans, provosts and syndicate before the vice-chancellor panel election.

The teachers under the banner of Sammilita Sikhak Parishad announced the demand at a press conference at social science faculty of the university.

They also protested at the announcement of JU VC Anwar Hossain on the vice-chancellor panel election to be held July 20.

MA Matin, convener of the Parishad, declared the programmes for July 11 and July 12.

The programmes includes a procession from new arts faculty building to vice-chancellor's office and a demonstration in front of VC office on July 11 and token siege of VC's office and a demonstration on July 12.

Meanwhile, the teachers' section submitted a memorandum to the VC on Tuesday, demanding withdrawal of VC panel election order. The VC, however, did not agree with the demand.

On June 29, the VC Anwar Hossain announced the date for vice-chancellor's panel election on July 20.
