

Bodies on Islamic Arabic Affiliated Univ formed

Staff Correspondent

THE government on Sunday formed two committees to finalise a law to establish an affiliated authority for Fazil (equivalent to graduation) and Kamul (equivalent to masters) madrassahs Islamic Arabic Affiliated University in the country.

A committee, led by National University vice-chancellor Kazi Shahidullah, will finalise the draft law while the other, led by additional secretary (madrassah and vocational) of the education ministry, will work on required human resources and financial issues.

The first committee was asked to submit report by seven working days and the second committee by 10 working days.

The committees were formed at an education ministry meeting, chaired by education minister Nurul Islam Nahid.

Among others, Dhaka University vice-chancellor AASM Arefin Siddique, education secretary Kamal Abdul Naser Chowdhury, NU vice-chancellor Kazi Shahidullah and representatives of madrassah teachers' association were present.