

তারিখ: ৭ JAN 2013
কাল: ৬

5 bombs blasted at DU

DU Correspondent

AT LEAST five homemade bombs were exploded on the Dhaka University campus on Sunday, triggering panic among the students.

Witness said unidentified people blasted the bombs at different points on the campus in support of Sunday's general strike enforced by the BNP-led 18-party alliance.

The Shahbagh police, meanwhile, held an outsider, Julhas Uddin, 24, in connection with carrying cocktails in his bag.

The witness said three cocktails were exploded in front of the Institute of Business Administration building, Madhur Canteen area and the central library in the morning while two more were exploded in front of the fine arts faculty and Mohsin Hall playground in the afternoon.

The Awami League-backed Chhatra League rallied at different spots of the campus and brought out anti-hartal processions throughout the day.

No procession and rally were, however, organised by Chhatra Dal leaders and activists on the campus on the day.