

Opposition holding 3cr students hostage: Nahid

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The opposition parties were holding the future of the country's three crore students hostage and ruining the education system by enforcing frequent hartals, alleged Education Minister Nurul Islam Nahid yesterday.

"The opposition parties and anti-liberation forces want to throw the new generation into darkness. They do not want our children to grow up as efficient citizens and that is why they are enforcing hartals one after another," he said.

Nahid was addressing a discussion organised by Bangladesh Besharkari Shiksha Proshika Karmachari Federation in the capital's Azampur Girls School and College.

He alleged that the opposition parties Secretary Shabbir Alam Saui also spoke
