

NEWS

5. MAR. 2013

Edn ministry launches talent hunt March 11

United News of Bangladesh
Dhaka

be selected as 'best talents' of the year under four categories.

THE education ministry has decided to launch the Creative Talent Search Competition 2013, aiming to select 7,000 talents from the country's schools, colleges and madrasahs.

Under the competition, some 12 students from three groups — Class-VI to Class-VIII, Class IX to Class-X and Class-XI to Class-XII — will nationally compete in maximum Dhaka

Besides, a total of 7,000 talents will be selected at upazila, district and divisional levels, said a press release of the education ministry on Monday.

The subjects of the competition are language and literature, science, mathematics and computer, and Bangladesh studies. A student can compete in maximum Dhaka names through heads of their educational institutions to upazila secondary education officer and deputy director of the Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board.

The competition will be held at upazila level on March 11-13, while at the district level on March 16-18 and at the divisional level on March 29-30.

Interested students were asked to register their names through heads of their educational institutions to upazila secondary education officer and deputy director of the Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board.