

Two JCD activists held for attack on Inu's residence

The Police official said that four people riding on two motorcycles launched the attack. Mahub arrested two activists of JCD in connection with crude bomb action on the residence of Inu on the residence of Inu. Police claimed that Abul had confessed his involvement in the attack saying the detainees are Mahubul Alam, 27, a masters student of political science and Akil Mahmud, 32, an MBA student of American International University of Bangladesh. The DB police, led by additional deputy commissioner (west) Mashur Rahman, raided several places in the capital and arrested the two from Bailey Road and Rupnagar. Police recovered a motorcycle used in the attack. They were presented before media at a news briefing on Tuesday. High commands of Janyabadi Chhatra Dal including its central president Abdul Kader Bhuiya Jewel had planned the attack to spread fear ahead of hartal, said DMP DB joint commissioner (south) Monirul Islam.

The Police official said that four people riding on two motorcycles launched the attack. Mahub arrested two activists of JCD in connection with crude bomb action on the residence of Inu on the residence of Inu. Police claimed that Abul had confessed his involvement in the attack saying the detainees are Mahubul Alam, 27, a masters student of political science and Akil Mahmud, 32, an MBA student of American International University of Bangladesh. The DB police, led by additional deputy commissioner (west) Mashur Rahman, raided several places in the capital and arrested the two from Bailey Road and Rupnagar. Police recovered a motorcycle used in the attack. They were presented before media at a news briefing on Tuesday. High commands of Janyabadi Chhatra Dal including its central president Abdul Kader Bhuiya Jewel had planned the attack to spread fear ahead of hartal, said DMP DB joint commissioner (south) Monirul Islam.

The two were produced before a chief metropolitan magistrate's court seeking 10 days' remand, but the court allowed seven days remand for each.

The two were produced before a chief metropolitan magistrate's court seeking 10 days' remand, but the court allowed seven days remand for each.

২৬ জুন ২০১৩

NEWS