NHRC chair expresses solidarity with non-MPO teachers

Staff Correspondent

Esharat Ali, led the delegation. The commission chair assured the delegation that he would talk with the prime minister and urged authorities to take measures to meet their demands.

The teachers also submitted a memorandum to the commission chairman seeking the teachers and employers later began fast-unto-death in front of the NHRC office.

The police fired teargas shells to disperse the teachers at the place.

The Ramna police officer-in-charge, Shah Alam, said that the teachers had gathered there without permission. We just tried to keep traffic normal.
