

CU Senate now can go for VC panel election

United News of Bangladesh
Dhaka

THE High Court on Sunday rejected the writ petition filed by three Chittagong University teachers seeking an order to withhold the 7th special meeting of the university's senate.

An HC bench comprising Justice Farah Mahbub and Justice Kazi Md Izarul Haque Akand passed the order.

Now there would be no obstacle towards holding the 7th special meeting of the CU senate and elect the a three-member panel to choose vice-chancellor, Kamal U Alam, who represented the CU authorities during Sunday's hearing, told reporters after the hearing.