THE newly appointed vice-chancellor of Chittagong University, Professor Iftekhar Uddin Chowdhury, took charges from the immediate past VC of the university on Monday morning, after placing a wreath at the portrait of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman on the campus.

Later, the new VC exchanged views with the university teachers at the conference room of his office and sought help from them to run the university smoothly.

He said building a campus with all modern facilities would be his main goal.

He also assured the university students that he would remove the session jams within the next six months.

Iftekhar Uddin Chowdhury started his teaching career as a lecturer of CU sociology department in 1982.

The president, Abdul Hamid, also the chancellor of the university, appointed him as the 17th VC of the university following the University Act 1973.
