5 injured in Shibir-BCL clash at BAU Four rooms of student dormitory ransacked

MYMENSINGH, Aug 5: Five activists of Islami Chhatra Shibir were injured in a clash with Chhatra League activists at Bangladesh Agriculture University (BAU) campus Saturday night, left five shibir men injured, reports UNB.

Witnesses said the clash ensued between the supporters of BCL and Shibir activists of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Hall at about 10:30pm following an alteration over a trifling matter at the dining room, leaving five injured.

Later, the Shibir activists regrouped and ransacked four rooms.

On information, police and RAB personnel rushed to the spot and brought the situation under control.

A four-member committee has been formed Sunday morning to investigate the matter and asked to submit its report within 48 hours.
