BCL-JCD CLASH AT JU BCL calls strike today, probe body formed

A CORRESPONDENT, JU

The Jahangirnagar University celebrate the University Day to amid a tense situation. Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) has called a strike for today to protest the attack on its president and general secretary Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JC) activists during clashes on Wednesday night and Thursday.

The university authority formed a three-member committee to probe the attacks.

At least 35 BCL leaders and workers, including its President Sohel Parvez and General Secretary Mahmud Naser Jonny, and 15 JC activists were injured in clash between them on the campus.

Office of the pro-vice chancellor and JCD activists' rooms at AF Kamaluddin Hall were also vandalised during clashes.

The BCL workers beat up several students yesterday morning for not assisting them in the clash.
