

অবিষ ০১ ৫ জুন ২০০৮
স্টোর ৪

Over 1,500 SSC examinees vow to resist corruption

Over 1,500 SSC examinees of 2008 of 22 schools in Dhaka on Saturday took a strong vow against corruption at a daylong function held here at Bangladesh-China Friendship Conference Centre, reports BSS.

Advocate Sultana Kamal, former adviser of the caretaker government and a trustee member of Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB), attended the function as the chief guest, according to a press release.

TIB Executive Director Dr Iftekharuzzaman, Director General of Anti-Corruption Commission Md. Abu Taleb Mia, eminent freedom fighter Akku Chowdhury and teacher of Saint Joseph School Reheha Begum joined the function.

At a seminar, organised under the aegis of TIB, the students expressed their firm pledge not to resort to any kind of corruption and said they would resist corruption at all levels from their respective positions.

The speakers also discussed good governance, values and role of people in judicial process.

During the second session, a friendly debate, quiz, fashion show and a concert were also held.