SUHRAWARDY Medical College was closed for an indefinite period after two groups of activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League, the ruling Awami League-backed student organisation, clashed on the campus on Sunday.

The residential students left the hall by 4:00pm following the clash, said Sher-e-Bangla Nagar police officer-in-charge GG Biswas.

Students and witnesses said that two groups of Chhatra League activists locked in a scuffle at the first floor of student hall around noon.

Later, the groups — one led by Sharita and Bullet and the other by Anisur Rahman and Kazi Mahbub equipped with iron rods and sticks clashed in front of the academic building and hospital till 2:00pm, when police contained the situation, the witnesses said.

Additional police were deployed till the students left the hall by 4:00pm, said Dhaka Metropolitan Police deputy commissioner [Tejgaon division] Biplab Kumar Sarkar.

He said quoting the college administration that the college was closed for an indefinite period following the clash.

Students said that the clash was caused by a quarrel over attending a programme on Saturday marking prime minister Sheikh Hasina's return home from UN General Assembly.
