

IBA director, DU VC served notice about admission eligibility

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Supreme Court lawyer yesterday sent a legal notice to the authorities concerned asking them to withdraw the eligibility condition imposed recently on students regarding admission test for Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) programme at the Institute of Business Administration (IBA) of Dhaka University in 24 hours.

According to the notice, only the students, who passed the higher secondary certificate exam in 2015, can apply for admission test of IBA in the current academic session. Earlier, students, who passed HSC exams in the previous years, were able to sit for the admission test.

Eunus Ali Akond served the notice to the director of IBA and DU's vice chancellor saying that he will file a writ petition with the HC seeking necessary order if the condition is not withdrawn.
