

3 DU students held for 'sexual harassment'

DU CORRESPONDENT

Police yesterday arrested three students of Dhaka University allegedly for harassing a female student in TSC area on the campus.

According to DU Proctor AM Amzad, the third year female student was chatting with her two male friends at Payra Chattar around 1:30am when the three first-year students wanted to see their identity cards which initiated an altercation. At one point, the three sexually harassed the woman.

But the trio, residents of Amar Ekushe Hall, who claimed to be BCL activists, denied the allegation of harassment. But BCL President of the hall Rakib could not recognise them.

Administrative steps will also be taken against the female student for remaining outside hall after 9:00pm, said the proctor.

Meanwhile, two more persons, Habib, former canteen boy of DU's Surya Sen Hall, and Sohel, a sweeper of a private farm, were arrested yesterday in connection with alleged extortion of a youth with threat of raping his female friend near the park on August 16.

On Tuesday night, police arrested two students of Dhaka College allegedly for smoking marijuana at TSC near Suhrawardy Udyan.
