ISLAMIC University in Kushtia on Sunday celebrated its 36th founding anniversary amid festivity.

The daylong celebrations included hoisting of the national and university flags and bringing out a colourful procession.

Students, teachers, officials and staff from different departments gathered on the campus with processions in the early morning.

Abdul Hakim Sarker, vice-chancellor, launched the programmes by hoisting the national flag while pro-vice-chancellor M Shahinoor Rahman hoisted the university flag on the campus around 8:30am.

Later, a joint colourful procession, led by the vice-chancellor, was brought out on the campus after pigeons and balloons were released around 10:30am.

The procession paraded the main roads of the campus.
