

JU authorities hand over 2 JCD activists to police
JU Correspondent

JAHANGIRNAGAR. University proctor office authorities held two activists of the Jatiyatabadi Chhatradal, Bangladesh Nationalist Party-backed, student organisation, and handed them over to the police on Tuesday for holding a procession protesting against the arrest warrant, issued against BNP senior vice-chairman Tarique Rahman.

The two accused were identified as Rafiqul Islam Pappu, and Saddam Hossain, fourth year students of geological sciences department.