A mobile court sentenced a madrasa teacher in Sadullapur upazila of the district to three months' imprisonment for beating up a student on Tuesday.

The convict is Hafez Shamiul Islam, 24, a teacher of Dhaperhat Shah Sufi Rostum Bogdadi Cadet Madrasa.

Police said Hafez Shamiul beat up the boy with a cane and locked him in a room as the boy did not attend classes.

The boy managed to escape from the room with the help of classmates, and took shelter at a nearby madrasa.

Being informed, police rushed to the spot and rescued him.

Later, the police arrested the teacher on charge of beating the student and produced him before a mobile court led by Ahsan Habib, UNO of Sadullapur and also the executive magistrate.

After hearing, the court awarded three-months jail sentence to the teacher and sent him to Gaibandha jail.
