

9 held over question leak in Jessore, Dhaka

United News of Bangladesh - Dhaka

DETECTIVES arrested nine members of two syndicates involved in leaking question papers of different examinations from Jessore and Dhaka city on Sunday.

Sources at the DB headquarters here said six members of a syndicate - Sumon Ahmed, Abdur Rahman, Abdur Rahman alias Liton, SM Tanvir Alam alias Rijvi, Jonny Rahman and Arifat Hossain were arrested by DB police from different areas of Jessore district on Sunday.

The arrestees are students of Jessore Polytechnic Institute and another private Polytechnic Institute of the district.

During preliminary interrogation, the arrestees, who had been involved in leaking questions of Polytechnic Institutes through Facebook, revealed that they used to collect questions before each examinations of Polytechnic In-

Dhaka Metropolitan Police present to the media nine suspected members of a gang responsible for leaking questions of different public exams through facebook in Dhaka on Monday. — New Age photo stitute and then circulated those through facebook and blue tooth technology among their friends.

Being tipped off, a special DB team from DMP conducted the drive and arrested them.

Besides, a DB special team conducted drive in Demra area and arrested - Nazmul, Hasan and Kamrul on Sunday night. All of them are teachers of Gulam Mostafa Model College of Demra in the capital.

Earlier, the DB police arrested six members of the gang, who had been involved in leaking SSC examination questions. Of them, Raihan Chowdhury gave statement before a magistrate court. Based on his statement, the detectives arrested the three teachers from Demra area.