A pro-Jamaat-e-Islami teacher of Rajshahi University was sent to jail yesterday morning, a day after he was arrested in connection with a case over attacking police on March 17's agitation of BNP-led 20 party alliance.

Police arrested Amirul Islam, an associate professor of the Islamic history and culture department, in his house in Rajshahi city around 8:30pm on Thursday.

He was produced before a Rajshahi court in the case and sent him to jail yesterday.

Amirul Islam is a charge-sheeted accused, said Officer-In-Charge of Motihar Police Station Humayun Kabir.

He added that he had masterminded many subversive activities and attacks on police in the city since 2013.
