RESULTS of the preliminary test of the 12th Non-government Teachers' Registration Examination, a pre-qualifying exam to appoint teachers in non-government schools, colleges, madrassahs, and technical institutes, were published on Tuesday.

Non-government Teachers' Registration and Certification Authority arranged the exam.

Overall pass rate was 15.81 per cent — 13.09 per cent applicants for school level posts and 20.96 per cent for college level posts, said NTRCA chairman AMM Azhar.

He said that 4.80 lakh students took the test held on June 12 and of them about 76,000 passed the test.

The candidates can also get their results from Teletalk's website (www.ntrca.teletalk.com.bd). NTRCA authorities will also send results to applicants through short message service.

Among the passed candidates, 41,200 passed for high school level posts and 34,800 for college level posts.

For school level posts, 3.14 lakh candidates and for college level posts 1.65 lakh candidates took the examinations.

NTRCA registration certificate is a must to get a job at non-government junior high schools, secondary schools, colleges, madrassahs, technical schools and vocational institutions around the country.

NTRCA was established in 2005 to ensure quality in teaching at all non-government educational institutions in the country.

There are 35,000 non-government educational institutions which offer post-primary education and these institutions have more than four lakh teachers.
