I'll attend DU convocation as a Nobel laureate, not politician: Dr Yunus

Nobel Laureate Prof Dr Muhammad Yunus has said he would attend the 43rd convocation of Dhaka University as a Nobel laureate, not as a politician, reports UNB.

The Nobel laureate made the remarks in a brief interview with the news agency prior to his departure for Dubai on February 22.

Asked about the demand of a section of DU teachers and students regarding his presence as the convocation speaker, the Nobel Laureate said, "Why shouldn't I go there? I'll go there as a Nobel laureate, not as a politician."
