UGC asked to investigate alleged corruption in all universities

DU Correspondent

The ministry of education has asked the University Grants Commission (UGC) to investigate the alleged corruption and irregularities that took place in all the country's public and private universities.

The ministry also asked the UGC on Wednesday to submit its report after reviewing the news on widespread corruption and irregularities published in several newspapers in the last couple of weeks.

Earlier, the UGC submitted an investigation report to the concerned ministry on corruption in seven universities. The universities are Bangladesh Open University (BAO), National University (NU), Maulana Bhashani Science and Technology University, Noakhali Science and Technology University, Patuakhali Science and Technology University, Dinajpur Science and Technology University and East-West University (pvt university).

According to sources, the ministry has sent the aforesaid reports to the Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) for taking necessary action.

An official of the ministry said that there are many allegations against different universities and they sent those to the UGC for proper investigation. They will start investigation against the corrupt officials by this month. The lists of the officials of the public universities have already been prepared.

To mention, the post of the Chairman of UGC is now lying vacant.
