

IT seminar and software exhibition by Queens University

Observer IT Report

The School of Computer Science and Engineering, Queens University, Dhaka, is going to arrange an IT seminar and a software exhibition on 5th February 2002 at 2.30 p.m. in ICMA auditorium, Nilkhet, Dhaka. Mr. Michael Rangstrup, Business Development Director of Metrocomia South Asia and Dr. Kaikobad, Professor of Computer Science and Engineering, Bangladeshi University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) will speak in the IT seminar. Mr. Rangstrup will talk on 'Employment opportunities of the ITR Professionals locally and globally' and Prof.

Kaikobad will speak on 'the problems of IT education in Bangladesh'. After the IT seminar, in the software exhibition, some selected software produced by the students of Queens University will be presented. The Chairperson of Queens University and Member of Parliament, Dr. Hamida Banu will be present as chief guest. The Vice-Chancellor of Queens University, Professor Amanullah Ahmed will be present as special guest. The software exhibition will be followed by a cultural programme. Only the students of Queens University and the invited guests and reporters will be permitted to enter the auditorium.