

SAU syndicate meet held

The first meeting of the first syndicate of Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University (SAU), Dhaka was held on June 01, at the university's conference room. Prof. Dr.A.M. Farooque, Vice Chancellor of SAU presided over the meeting, says a Press release.

The meeting congratulated Prime Minister Khaleda Zia for becoming the Chancellor of the Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University and prayed for her early recovery.

In the meeting 23 agenda were discussed and a number of sub-committees was constituted to review and modify certain matters placed in the meeting. All the agenda containing academic council's decisions were passed in the meeting. The members of the syndicate decided to approach the relevant Ministers for raising government allocations for the newly established Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University.

The meeting was attended by Syndicate members: Prof. Md. Shahidul Islam MP, Abu Solaiman Chowdhury, Divisional Commissioner, Dhaka, Mohammad Abdul Latif, Addl. Secretary, Establishment Ministry, Dr. Md. Shahidul Islam, Director General, BARI, Dr. Sheikh Md. Erfan Ali, Director General, BSRI, Kbd. A.K.M. Gias Uddin Milkey, former Director General, Ministry of Agriculture, Dr. A.F.M. Sharfuddin, Professor, Dept. of Horticulture, BAU, Kbd. Anwarunnabi Majumder, Industrialist and Registered Graduate, Abu Akbar Mia, Professor, Dept. of Genetics and Plant Breeding, SAU, Mohammad Hossain Bhuiyan, Professor, Dept. of Agril. Extension, SAU, Dr. Serajul Islam Bhuiyan, Professor, Dept. of Entomology, M. Zahidul Haque, Associate Professor, Dept. of Agril. Extension, SAU.