THE BANGLADESH OBSERVER

MAR. 08 2002

Int'l Women's Day today

Staff Correspondent

Civil Society Movement for Women's Empowerment (CSMWE) has described the present situation of women in the country as grievous and demanded of the government to take measures to stop violence, killing and repression on them.

In observance of the International Women's Day today (Friday), the organisation arranged a press conference at the National Press Club on Thursday to protest the recent incidents of women repression and killing.

This year's theme of the Day is "Protect the Women Rights". As elsewhere in the world, different women and socio-cultural organisations of the country will observe the Day in a befitting manner.

Following the movement of ...

FA.

Politician Hasanul Huq Inu id, "We failed to provide the ople with the consistent ideas out the positive and negative les of globalisation and how to ckle it." He urged for a people's velopment paradigm instead of nor-prescribed formula for economic advancement.

Former Deputy Speaker Prof li Ashraf stressed the need for rong negotiation with the international bodies and mentioned at the lending agencies like orld Bank started taking into gnizance the criticism about eir transparency and accountbility.

AKM Maksud Ali, AKM Moaque Ali and Ratan Sarkar in a int paper on "The Human Toll Globalisation" warned that in e post-MFA regime, hundreds of ousands of garment workers, ostly female, would risk losing eir jobs.

Vigilance team

From Page 1 Col. 3

The aim of the committee is to ke effective measures on the sis of recommendations obined after evaluating the law and der situation with the city MPs, ficials at different levels, elite, rnalists and police.

State Minister for Home Affairs fuzzaman Babar ...