

299

তারিখ ... NOV. 01 1999 ...

পৃষ্ঠা ৩ কলাম ২

Seminar on globalisation held in DU

Experts at a seminar on Sunday opined that a revolutionary change is taking place in the arena of world trade and socio-economic, political and cultural activities due to Globalisation process across the world, reports BSS.

"It emerged as an important issue to the contemporary sociologists", Professor M. Nazrul Islam of Political Science Department of Dhaka University said in his keynote paper that was presented at the seminar on "Globalisation: Socio-economic and Political Effect on Bangladesh".

Advanced Research Centre on Social Sciences of the university organised the seminar.

Former Chairman of the International Relations Department Professor Nurul Momen and Dr. Ataur Rahman of Political Science Department took part on the papers presented in the seminar while Professor Shamsul Huda Harun of the same Department was in the chair.

Director of the centre Professor Syed Giasuddin Ahmed conducted the seminar.