

Removal of DU VC, Proctor demanded Ctg students, lawyers condemn midnight raid on female hostels

CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, July 28:—People of all walks of life in the port-city expressed deep indignation over recent mid-night police oppression in the female dormitory of Dhaka University and demanded immediate removal of the Vice-Chancellor, area Proctor of Dhaka University.

The female resident students of Pritilata Hall and Samsunnahar Hall of Chittagong University brought out separate processions in the hall premises protesting the midnight police swoop.

The female student of these two dormitories of Chittagong University strongly criticized the role of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctor of the university and demanded their termination.

During the procession the female students of the dormitories chanted slogans against the VC and Proctor of Dhaka University. Some students of the female dormitories of Chittagong University said that it was a shame for the nation that police oppressed the sleeping female students of Samsunnahar Hall. They dubbed it as a reflection of the terrible scene of the Liberation War in 1971.

Meanwhile, the students of Chittagong Government City College, MES College, Islamia College and Government Commerce College today brought out a protest processions in the city protesting the incident of Dhaka University.

Police put barricades in the processions on the roads to resist in the city. Police stopped the procession of the students of Chittagong Government City College at Bipani Bitan (New Market) area while the other students processions were stopped at different points.

On the other hand, Chittagong Zila Ainjibi Samity also protested the mid-night attack on the sleeping female students.

They brought out a procession and paraded different streets of the city. Later they hold a wayside rally in front of the Court Building.

Presided over by the President of Chittagong Zila Ainjibi Samity Shafiqul Alam the meeting was also addressed among others by Rana Das Gupta, Kamal Uddin Ahmed, Ibrahim Hossain Babul and Abu Mohammad Hasem.

At the meeting the speakers wanted immediate removal of what they called irresponsible VC and stupid Proctors of Dhaka University as they are totally futile to give security to the female students of the university.

Gonotantik Chhatra Oikya, an alliance of Samajtantrik Chhatra Front and Bangladesh Chhatra Union, will hold a rally at central Shaheed Minar tomorrow protesting the oppression in Dhaka University. They will also give a memorandum to the Deputy Commissioner of Chittagong in this regard.