Tension mounts on DU campus

Staff Correspondent

Tension mounted on Dhaka University campus as activists of two rival factions of a student organisation staged show of arms over establishment of regional supremacy in a residential hall on Friday.

Campus sources said, two rival faction of BCL (S-P) were engaged in armed clash on Thursday night at Jagannath Hall, the stronghold pro-Awami League Chhatri League following the eviction of a leader from the hall. They exchanged over 30 rounds of gunshots leaving a student bullet injured. The injured student Sudhangshu who came to the hall for first year admission purpose was admitted to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) with bullet wound.

Members of both the factions equipped with arms staged rehearsal at different points of the university on Friday.
