

140 students hurt in BCL-JCD clash in JU

At least 140 students were injured Saturday in a clash between the activists of pro-BNP Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and pro-Awami League Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) at Jagnan-nath University, reports BD News.

Tension gripped the students, particularly the admission seekers, in the wake of the clashes. Large contingents of police and RAB rushed to the spot to prevent further rioting.

Mamun-- were hospitalised. According to campus sour the midday clashes were triggered by an attack on BCL leader I hedi by JCD activists at ab 10.30 am.

During the clashes, leaders activists from both the BCL the JCD swooped on each other with hockey sticks and other weapons. They also traded bats and stones for half an hour.

Meanwhile, the students