

022

Pry. teachers observe protest day

By A Staff Correspondent

A protest day was observed on Tuesday throughout the country at the call of the Bangladesh Primary Teachers' Council to protest the Government decision to hand over the management of the primary schools to the local bodies. A Press release issued by the Council said that rallies were organised at different places in connection with the observance of the day.