

Collective efforts to eradicate illiteracy stressed

By A Staff Reporter

Bangladesh Jatiya Mohila Sangstha observed the International Literacy Day through a discussion meeting at the central office of the Sangstha on Friday. Dr Mrs Amina Rahman, Chairman of the Sangstha and Minister for Women Affairs, presided over the discussion meeting.

In her presidential speech Dr Mrs Amina Rahman called for realistic programmes for eradication of illiteracy from the country.

She said that only Government initiative and help in this regard was not enough. Dr Amina Rahman stressed the need for collective efforts of all educated men and women of the country for solving the problem.

The meeting was addressed among others by Mrs Nures Maqsood, Mrs Fatema Salam, Mrs Marjina Jahan, Mrs Hasina Khanam, Begum Ahsanullah, Mrs Jahanara Khan, Mrs Khurshid Jahan and Mrs Mushfeqa Mahmud.

On the day the Dacca city committee of Bangladesh Mohila Parishad also held two separate discussion meetings at Siddhewsari Girls' College and tall office in observance of International Literacy Day.
