

31

জন্মিত ১৫ JUN 1997
পৃষ্ঠা ১৭ কলার ১

'Bangabandhu scholarship' for DU scholar

International Centre for Diarrhoeal Diseases Research, Bangladesh (ICDDR,B) will award a scholarship named "Bangabandhu Scholarship" to a young, bright and outstanding scholar of Dhaka University, reports BSS.

The scholarship amounting to Taka five thousand per month for a three year period will be awarded for the research work leading to Ph.D degree in the field of microbiology, pharmacy, pharmacology or medicine.

The details of the award were finalised on Monday when Director of the ICDDR,B Demissie Habte called on Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof AK Azad Chowdhury at his office on Monday DU source said.

According to the final draft of the award proposal, expenses involving research, foreign travel and training will also be borne by the ICDDR,B.

The selection of the scholar will be made by a five-member board headed by the Vice-Chancellor. The other members of the board will be Director of ICDDR,B or his representative, Deans of the Faculties of Biological Science, Pharmacy and Post Graduate Medicine.