

Photo distribute prizes June

National Edn Week June 7,8

The competition of the National Education Week, 1993 will be held at the Shishu Academy on June 7 and 8, a PID handout said, reports BSS.

The prize distribution ceremony will be held at Osmani Auditorium on June 9.

Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia will distribute prizes among the winners of the competition at the national level as the chief guest.

One hundred eight participants will be given prizes in 12 items in three groups. Besides 36 teachers and 26 educational institutions including two polytechnic institutes from Dhaka city and divisional levels will be given prizes at national level.

The competitors who have been selected at divisional level will have to report at Shishu Academy on June 6.

The divisional committees have been requested to send the names of the successful candidates to the ministry of Education by May 31.