Professor Mesbahuddin Ahmed, chairman of the Bangladesh Accreditation Council, attended the programme as chief guest and emphasised the critical role of accreditation in ensuring quality assurance and global competitiveness in higher education.

The workshop was also graced by Professor Yusuf Mahbubul Islam, vice-chancellor of Southeast University, and Professor Md Mofazzal Hossain, pro-VC of SEU, as special guests.

They reaffirmed the university's strong commitment to academic excellence and continuous quality improvement.

The keynote presentation was delivered by Professor SM Kabir, member, BAC, who also chaired the session and provided practical guidance on accreditation documentation and evidence management.

The programme began with a welcome address by Professor AKM Masum, director, Institutional Quality Assurance Cell, SEU, followed by an interactive open discussion and question-and-answer session.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by Professor Nasir Uddin Ahammed, director, accreditation, BAC.

The workshop reflects Southeast University's ongoing efforts to strengthen institutional readiness for national and international accreditation.
