The Southeast University celebrates the Independence Day at the Multipurpose Hall of the university in Dhaka on Wednesday. | Press release

The Southeast University celebrated Independence Day with due respect and enthusiasm by organising a discussion session and cultural programme at the Multipurpose Hall of the university in Dhaka on Wednesday.

Registrar of the university Md Anwarul Islam delivered the keynote address at the programme, which was presided over by SEU vice-chancellor Professor Yusuf Mahbubul Islam, said a press release.

Special remarks were delivered by SEU pro-VC Professor M Mofazzal Hossain while convener of the Implementation Committee and dean of the school of engineering Professor Dewan Md Farid delivered welcome address at the programme.

The discussion session highlighted the spirit of the War of Independence and the significance of Independence Day, emphasising the vital role of the younger generation in nation-building.

The event was attended by deans, heads of departments, faculty members, administrative officers and staff as well as students of the university.
