JU signs MoU with Hubei University for research, innovation

JU Correspondent  11 May, 2026, 01:54

Jahangirnagar University signed a memorandum of understanding with China's Hubei University on Sunday to strengthen cooperation in education, research and digital innovation initiatives, university officials said.

The agreement was signed in the seminar room of the vice-chancellor's office at the university in Savar on Sunday afternoon.

Jahangirnagar University vice-chancellor Mohammad Kamrul Ahsan and Hubei University representative Liu Jianping signed the agreement on behalf of their respective institutions.

Under the agreement, the two universities will collaborate on initiatives related to smart health, digital transformation, bilateral education, research, as well as seminars and workshops under China's Belt and Road Initiative.

Speaking at the ceremony, Kamrul Ahsan said the agreement would expand opportunities for mutual cooperation between the two institutions, facilitating the exchange of information and academic resources among teachers, students and researchers.

Among others present at the event were Jahangirnagar University pro-vice-chancellor for administrative affairs Sohel Ahmed, treasurer Md Abdur Rob and acting dean of the faculty of biological sciences Md Mafruhi Sattar.

Representatives from Hubei University attending the ceremony included international office director Cai Lei, dean of the school of computer science Zhang Yan and associate professor Chen Hongjian from the college of health science and engineering, alongside other officials and academics.
