Dhaka University will celebrate Dhaka University Day on July 1 with a series of programmes marking the 105th year of the institution's academic journey.

The decision was taken at a meeting held on Tuesday at the Professor Abdul Matin Chowdhury Virtual Classroom, presided over by vice-chancellor Professor ABM Obaidul Islam, said a press release.

According to the programme schedule, teachers, students, officers and employees will gather at Smriti Chirantan Chattar adjacent to the VC office at 9:30am. A colourful procession led by the VC will begin at 9:45am and conclude at Payra Chattar in front of the Teacher-Student Centre.

The national flag, Dhaka University flag and hall flags will be hoisted at 10:00am, followed by the national anthem and an inaugural song. A discussion meeting chaired by the VC will be held at the TSC auditorium at 10:30am.

A special commemorative publication will be released to mark the occasion, while decorative arches will be installed at various university entrances.

The university began its academic activities on July 1, 1921.
